

Tad Hills

Author Visit to
Godwin School
Tuesday, June 3

About the New Book

In this delightful follow-up to the New York Times bestselling Duck & Goose and Duck, Duck, Goose, Duck wants to go on an adventure. Goose doesn't. He doesn't see the point. After all, why would they go anywhere when they're happy right where they are? But then Goose sees the ocean and loves it. Who doesn't? Well, Duck, for one! A perfect book for anyone who's ever felt excited, but also nervous about leaving home.

We are delighted to announce that NY Times best selling children's author Tad Hills will visit Godwin School on Tuesday, June 3 to discuss his new book Duck & Goose Go to the Beach and other titles. Mr. Hills will be speaking to students in grades K - 2 .

An author visit is a wonderful opportunity for young readers to meet the creators of the books they read, and we have arranged for both students and teachers to purchase autographed copies of their books. Please consider extending this learning experience through the purchase of an autographed book..

About the Author

Tad was raised in Norwell, Massachusetts in a creative household. His grandmother was an accomplished artist— together, they created paintings, drawings, and books. His mother, a 4th grade science teacher gave him his love of nature and wildlife.

Tad graduated with a degree in Art from Skidmore College in New York. He states, however, that his greatest educational experience has been raising his children:

Tad lives in Brooklyn with his wife and two children
